

BLOG ASSIGNMENT 6: TRISTRAM SHANDY

Response due: Sunday, March 17

Comment due: Tuesday, March 19

This is another assignment that requires some role-playing: You are teaching this course and are making up an essay midterm on Tristram Shandy. You want to determine the students' understanding of the novel.

Please make up an essay question whose answer requires an understanding of or interpretation of a significant or crucial element of the novel; then explain why this element or aspect of the novel is important, i.e., why you chose it. Do not ask a factual or narrow question.

Note:

Your response must show some development and evidence of thinking. If it is acceptable, I will comment on it. If it needs more work, I will e-mail you.

Remember to check to be sure that your response was indeed sent to Blackboard.
